LUKE 2

1 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

Women's Ministries

Helping Hands will meet on December 8th at 3:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall.

We will not meet during the remainder of December. We will resume meetings on March 2nd and as weather permits. There is a possibility of meeting in February and that will be announced through the Bulletin and One-Call.

In the new year, we will be planning activities for the year.

Please feel free to come join us. You don't have to sew to help. There are lots of other things to do...lots of fellowship, fun and laughter plus working for the Lord. If you would like to make a monetary donation, at any time, to Helping Hands or WMU please indicate it on your check or envelope. Helping Hands collects throughout the year, various items for the Christmas Shoeboxes. Thanks to each of you who contributed items, money, and an extra thank you for the money for shoebox postage. Special thanks to Bobby Patterson and Buddy Sams for delivering the shoeboxes to the site at New Market Baptist Church.

WMU meets the fourth Wednesday of each month for Missions night unless there are no services scheduled or a conflict in the schedule.

Thank you for your continued support of our Women's Ministry

In Gratitude

Thank you, Father, for having created us and given us to each other in the human family. Thank you for being with us in all our joys and sorrows, for your comfort in our sadness, your companionship in our loneliness. Thank you for yesterday, today, tomorrow and for the whole of our lives. Thank you for friends, for health and for grace. May we live this and every day conscious of all that has been given to us.
